

Impromptu Contest Information

Background

The Circle K International Impromptu Essay contest is designed to encourage members to share their attitudes, beliefs, and experiences regarding the organization for the unprepared. This also assists members in developing public speaking skills while providing an inspirational and motivational message.

GUIDELINES FOR ENTERING THIS COMPETITION

1. Complete entry form to the Awards committee at the District Convention
2. The competition will be staged during the District Convention. The location will be published in the official convention program.

RULES GOVERNING THE INPROMPTU COMPETITION

1. The subject of all contests shall be given at the time and place of the contest judging.
2. Subject matter will be weighted in the selection of the winners.
3. To be eligible for this competition, individuals must be Circle K members in good standing with District and International, and members of a club in good standing with District and International. District and International Officers will not be allowed to participate in this contest.
4. Entrants will be given a topic which they will write an essay on in an allocated time frame of 1 hour.
5. Essay should be at least 500 words
6. First, second, and third place winners shall be selected.
7. The winner may be given the opportunity to share their essay to the convention attendees.
8. Decisions of the judges are final.